2.6.2 Attainment of program outcomes, program specific outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution

Yes, Attainment of program outcomes, program specific outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution. Attainment is done through an organised system of classroom teaching that ensures that course outcomes and program outcomes are fulfilled through planned lectures. These classroom lectures are supplemented by co-curricular activities like debates, departmental fests, guest lectures and departmental industrial visits. Attainment of program outcomes, program specific outcomes and course outcomes is done through an elaborate system of internal assessment that consists of tests, quizzes, assignments, Projects, etc. direct and Indirect assessments were conducted and every question is mapped to different CO and PO. Attainment is calculated by using weighted average calculation. The objective of all these programs is to maintain quality of educations for their career and future development. All these programs said above are being evaluated by the institution effectively. The classroom teaching and learning ensures that course outcomes and program outcomes are fulfilled through plan lectures..

This evaluation is based upon system organized programs. The institution plays an important role of the leader, which leads the teachers and the students towards the intellectual brightness.
